Civil Action No. 3:09-CV-298-N

ORDER

This Order addresses the Antiguan Liquidators' agreed motion to stay proceedings related to approval of a stipulated settlement [1103]. The parties request that the Court withhold consideration of their stipulated settlement pending an Antiguan court's resolution of a related matter. The Court grants the motion. However, rather than keep the motion active on the Court's docket indefinitely during the pendency of the Antiguan proceeding (the time frame for which the parties give no estimate), the Court denies without prejudice their agreed motion for approval of stipulation of settlement [1086].¹ If the parties still desire to pursue their stipulated settlement upon resolution of the related Antiguan proceeding, they may resubmit it for the Court's consideration.

¹See, e.g., Pender v. Bank of Am. Corp., 2005 WL 2544300, at *2 (W.D.N.C. 2005) (declining to "stay" a pending motion and instead denying the motion without prejudice to refiling).
