Each releasor acknowledges that he, she, or it may hereafter discover facts different from, or in addition to, those which such releasor now knows or believes to be true with respect to the Settled Claims, but nonetheless agrees that this Agreement, including the releases in paragraphs 61-64 of this Agreement, is and will remain binding and effective in all respects. “Unknown Claims” include contingent and non-contingent claims, whether or not concealed or hidden, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of different or additional facts. These provisions concerning unknown and unsuspected claims and the inclusion of “Unknown Claims” in the definition of Settled Claims were separately bargained for and were an essential element of this Agreement and the Settlement. c. To order that this Agreement and the releases set forth herein are final and binding upon the Parties; and

45. The Parties shall take all reasonable steps to advocate for the Agreement.

46. No Party shall challenge the fairness of the Settlement. No Party will encourage or assist any Interested Party in challenging the Settlement.

47. The Parties shall use their best efforts to obtain the Scheduling Order and the Bar Order and Judgment.

However, Kroll is responsible for paying the cost of mailing the Notice and translating this Agreement and its

49. Within thirty (30) days following completion of the translation and mailing, the Receiver will notify Kroll of the actual costs incurred for those activities. In the event that the actual costs do not exceed thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000.00), the Receiver will, within ten (10) days of the notice to Kroll, return the difference to Kroll via wire transfer pursuant to instructions to be provided by Kroll within five (5) days of the Receiver's notice.

50. No Interested Party or any other Person shall have any recourse against Kroll or the Kroll Released Parties with respect to any claims that may arise from any failure in the notice process.

VI. Application for Antiguan Orders

51. On or reasonably soon after the date that Plaintiffs file their motion papers in the Court pursuant to paragraph 42, the Antiguan Liquidators shall file applications for entry of each of the Antiguan Orders. e. determines that there is no just reason for delay and directs that the Bar Order and Judgment shall be final and appealable within the meaning of Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or alternatively the collateral order doctrine; and

f. reserves continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the Settlement and this Agreement, including the administration and consummation of this Settlement, provided, however, that the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all matters related to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Order, to Kroll's chapter 11 cases, and to Kroll's Chapter 11 Plan.

VIII. Distribution Plan

54. The Receiver shall be solely responsible for implementing the Distribution Plan.

55. After the Court has approved the Distribution Plan, the Bar Order and Judgment is Final, the Settlement has become effective on the Effective Date, the Settlement Amount has been paid to the Receiver, and the Court has decided Plaintiffs' motion for Attorneys Fees, the Net Settlement Amount shall be distributed to such Claimants in such amounts as described in the Distribution Plan or per such other terms that the Court may, as permitted by this Agreement, direct, in the Bar Order and Judgment or other order of the Court.

56. The entire Net Settlement Amount will be distributed pursuant to the Distribution Plan.

57. The Distribution Plan is a matter separate and apart from the Settlement between the Parties, and any decision or matter concerning the Distribution Plan shall not affect the validity or finality of this Agreement or the Settlement. Accordingly, no Party may cancel or terminate this Agreement or the Settlement, and this Agreement and the Settlement shall not be impugned or denied recognition or enforcement, based on anything relating to or concerning the Distribution Plan. Nothing in this paragraph 57 is intended to nor does have any impact on Kroll's rights under Section XIV of this Agreement.

58. Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties shall not have any responsibility, obligation, or liability whatsoever with respect to the Distribution Plan; the administration of the Settlement; the investment or allocation of the Net Settlement Amount or any other amount in connection with the Settlement; the payment or withholding of Taxes that may be due or owing by the Receiver or any recipient of funds from the Settlement Payment; the determination, administration, calculation, reviewing, or challenging of claims to the Net Settlement Amount or any other amount in connection with this Agreement; or any losses, attorneys fees, expenses, vendor payments, expert payments, or other costs in connection with any of the foregoing matters. Plaintiffs fully, finally, and forever release, relinquish, and discharge Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties from any and all such liability.

59. The Plaintiffs will ask the Court to include in the Bar Order and Judgment a provision stating that a Claimant whose claim is determined to be invalid shall have no recourse of any type whatsoever against the Parties or the Kroll Released Parties, or their agents, but may solely object to such determination before the Court.

IX. Information on Claimants, Claims Process, Liquidation and Receivership

60. If Kroll reasonably determines that additional information related to, arising out of, or concerning Claimants, Interested Parties, the claims process associated with the U.S. receivership, or the Distribution Plan is necessary to effectuating this Agreement or the Settlement, Kroll may request such information from Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs will consider such requests and will provide such information if reasonably able to do so, and if in the Plaintiffs' judgment providing the information requested is reasonably necessary to effectuating the Agreement or Settlement, does not unreasonably burden the privacy interests of Plaintiffs or third parties, and does not invade privileges owned or entrusted to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs will consider such requests in a timely fashion, but such requests shall not delay the consummation of this Settlement nor shall they be deemed to vitiate the Settlement after it becomes effective on the Effective Date. Any disputes about such requests will be submitted to the Court for determination.

X. Releases, Covenant Not to Sue, and Permanent Injunction

61. In addition to the provisions of the Bar Order and Judgment, and provided that the Court approves this Agreement, then effective upon the Effective Date, each of the Plaintiffs and the Plaintiffs Release Parties, and all others on whose behalf the Plaintiffs have been empowered to represent or act by any court order or applicable law, including the Stanford Persons and Claimants; and each of their past, present, and future directors, officers, legal and equitable owners, shareholders, members, managers, principals, employees, associates, representatives, distributees, agents, attorneys, trustees, general and limited partners, lenders, insurers and reinsurers, direct and indirect parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related entities, divisions, partnerships, corporations, executors, administrators, heirs, beneficiaries, assigns, predecessors, predecessors in interest, successors, and successors in interest; and each of their respective past, present, and future directors, officers, legal and equitable owners, shareholders, members, managers, principals, employees, associates, representatives, distributees, agents, attorneys, trustees, general and limited partners, lenders, insurers and reinsurers, direct and indirect parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related entities, divisions, partnerships, corporations, executors, administrators, heirs, beneficiaries, assigns, predecessors, predecessors in interest, successors, and successors in interest; and any other Person claiming (now or in the future) through or on behalf of any Person described in this paragraph, fully, finally, and forever releases, relinquishes, and discharges, with prejudice, all Settled Claims against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties.

62. In addition to the effect of the Bar Order and Judgment entered in accordance with this Agreement, and provided that the Court approves this Agreement, then effective upon the Effective Date, Kroll fully, finally, and forever releases, relinquishes, and discharges, with prejudice, all Settled Claims against Plaintiffs Release Parties.

63. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in this Agreement or otherwise, the foregoing releases do not release the Parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement or the Settlement or bar the Parties from enforcing or effectuating this Agreement or the Settlement. Nor do the foregoing releases bar or release any claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

64. Plaintiffs covenant not to, directly or indirectly, or through a third party, institute, reinstitute, initiate, commence, maintain, continue, file, encourage, solicit, collaborate in, or otherwise prosecute, against the Kroll Released Parties any action, lawsuit, cause of action, claim, investigation, demand, complaint, or proceeding, whether individually, derivatively, on behalf of a class, or otherwise, concerning the Settled Claims, whether in the Court, in any other Forum, or otherwise. Kroll covenants not to, directly or indirectly, or through a third party, institute, reinstitute, initiate, commence, maintain, continue, file, encourage, solicit, collaborate in, or otherwise prosecute, against Plaintiffs Release Parties any action, lawsuit, cause of action, claim, investigation, demand, complaint, or proceeding, whether individually, derivatively, on behalf of a class, or otherwise, concerning the Settled Claims, whether in the Court, in any other Forum, or otherwise.

65. The Bar Order and Judgment shall include a provision that permanently bars and enjoins Plaintiffs, Claimants, any Interested Parties, and/or any Person, and all of their respective heirs, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, successors and assigns, from, directly or indirectly, or through a third party, instituting, reinstating, initiating, commencing, maintaining, continuing, filing, encouraging, soliciting, collaborating in, or otherwise prosecuting, against Kroll or any of the Kroll Released Parties any action, lawsuit, cause of action, claim, investigation, demand, complaint, or proceeding, of any nature (including but not limited to litigation, arbitration, or any other legal proceeding, in any Forum), whether individually, derivatively, on behalf of a class, or otherwise, concerning, arising from, in connection with, or related to the Settled Claims, whether in this Court, in any other Forum, or otherwise, provided, however, that the Bar Order and Judgment shall not preclude any action to enforce the terms of this Agreement or any actions or claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

66. All payments pursuant to the Distribution Plan shall:

a. be made by check bearing on the front “SETTLEMENT CHECK” and on the back “I accept this check in full and final settlement and release of all claims against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties related to Stanford and consent to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas for all purposes related to such claims, expressly waiving any different jurisdiction based on my current or future domicile.”

b. be accompanied by a separate document, which may be a tear sheet to which the check is connected, stating: “A global settlement has been reached by (i) Ralph S. Janvey, as Receiver for Robert Allen Stanford and related persons and entities, (ii) the Official Stanford Investors Committee, (iii) Marcus A. Wide and Hugh Dickson, as joint liquidators of Stanford International Bank and Stanford Trust Company, Ltd., and Marcus A. Wide and Hordley Forbes, as joint liquidators of Stanford Development Company, and (iv) Kroll, LLC (f/k/a Kroll Inc.) and Kroll Associates, Inc. (“Kroll”). The U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas has issued a final Bar Order and Judgment approving of the settlement and permanently barring all claims against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties related to Stanford, as described in the Notice and other documents available at www.stanfordfinancialreceivership.com. The enclosed check is in full and final settlement and release of all claims against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties related to Stanford and its deposit indicates your consent to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas for all purposes related to such claims, expressly waiving any different jurisdiction based on your current or future domicile.”

67. Plaintiffs will ask the Court to include in the Bar Order and Judgment a provision stating that each Claimant shall be bound by the Bar Order and Judgment, including its provisions concerning the release and injunction of claims by Interested Parties, regardless of whether he/she/it receives, deposits, or endorses any check.

XI. Protection Against Contribution

68. The Bar Order and Judgment shall include a provision that permanently bars, enjoins, and restrains any Person from commencing, prosecuting, or asserting against Kroll or any Kroll Released Party, whether individually, derivatively, on behalf of a class, or otherwise, whether in this Court or in any other Forum or otherwise, any claim, however denominated, for contribution, indemnity, or any other claim where the injury to such Person is such Person’s liability to any Plaintiff, Claimant, or Interested Party that arises out of a judgment or settlement obtained by any Plaintiff, Claimant, or Interested Party (or anyone else to the extent that the claim on which it obtains a judgment or settlement was owned by any Plaintiff, Claimant or Interested Party) against such Person that in any way relates to, is based upon, arises from, or is connected with Stanford, the SEC Action, the Wampold and Marquette Actions, or any Settled Claim, except that there shall be no bar of any claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

69. To the extent any Person is barred, enjoined, or restrained by paragraph 68 of this Agreement, such Person (the “Non-Settlor”) shall be entitled to the reduction of any verdict, judgment, or award against it on a claim concerning Stanford, in any Forum, to the extent that such Forum finds that the Non-Settlor and the Kroll Released Parties were joint tortfeasors respecting such claim. Such reduction shall be the greater of: (a) an amount that corresponds to the percentage of responsibility of the Kroll Released Parties, or (b) such other amount as may be required by law.

70. In no event shall the Kroll Released Parties be responsible to pay any amount to any Person based on the amount or method or absence of reduction of any verdict, judgment, or award on a claim concerning Stanford.

71. The Bar Order and Judgment shall include provisions corresponding to paragraphs 68-70 of this Agreement.

XII. Related Actions

72. The Receiver agrees to provide notice to the plaintiffs in the Wampold and Marquette Actions, within ten (10) business days, of when the Effective Date conditions set forth in paragraph 36(a)-(d) of this Agreement are satisfied.

73. The Parties understand that per the terms of a side letter, the plaintiffs in the Wampold and Marquette Actions have agreed to file Stipulations of Dismissal that dismiss Kroll from those actions with prejudice within five (5) days of receiving the notice described in paragraph 72 above that the Effective Date conditions set forth in paragraph 36(a)-(d) of this Agreement are satisfied.

74. The Settlement shall be conclusive proof of the resolution of any and all proofs of claim related to the Settled Claims that have been or are subsequently filed with the Bankruptcy Court in Kroll's chapter 11 cases, including the Chapter 11 Proof of Claim.

XIII. Attorneys Fees and Expenses

75. Plaintiffs will move the Court to order that Plaintiffs' counsel be awarded from the Settlement Amount attorneys fees in a total amount of no more than six million dollars ($6,000,000.00) and reimbursement of expenses (other than Plaintiffs' Share of Notice Costs) in a total amount of no more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) (together, "Attorneys Fees"). The Attorneys Fees will be paid out of the Settlement Amount, and the Kroll Released Parties have no obligation to pay any monies other than the Settlement Amount.

76. The approval, payment and allocation of Attorneys Fees in connection with, relating to, or arising out of the Agreement and the Settlement, to any Person is a matter separate and apart from the Settlement between the Parties. The application by Plaintiffs' counsel for Attorneys Fees is to be considered by the Court separately from the Court's consideration of the fairness, reasonableness, adequacy, and good faith of the Settlement. Any award of Attorneys Fees shall be set forth in an order separate from the Bar Order and Judgment such that any appeal of any Attorneys Fees award shall not constitute an appeal of the Bar Order and Judgment and any appeal of the Bar Order and Judgment shall not constitute an appeal of any Attorneys Fees award.

77. In the event the Settlement is not terminated, but any award of Attorneys Fees is reversed or modified (whether by the Court, on appeal, or otherwise), then Plaintiffs' counsel shall comply with any Court orders regarding return of any such award (if it has already been paid) to be paid to the Receiver for distribution pursuant to the Distribution Plan the portion of Attorneys Fees consistent with such reversal or modification, together with any interest actually earned thereon. Kroll has no interest in any such fees, or any involvement in how they would be returned or distributed.

78. Any decision or matter concerning such Attorneys Fees shall not affect the validity or finality of this Agreement or the Settlement. Plaintiffs may not cancel or terminate this Agreement or the Settlement, and this Agreement and the Settlement shall not be impugned or denied recognition or enforcement, based on anything relating to or concerning Attorneys Fees.

79. Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties shall not have any responsibility, obligation, or liability whatsoever with respect to Attorneys Fees. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in this Agreement or otherwise, Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties shall have no obligation to pay or reimburse any Attorneys Fees incurred by or on behalf of any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs Release Party, or any representative, trustee, or subrogee of any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs Release Party.

XIV. Option to Terminate this Agreement and Stay of Proceedings

80. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, set forth in this Agreement or otherwise, Kroll has, before the Effective Date, the right but not the obligation to terminate this Agreement and the Settlement, to be exercised in its sole and absolute discretion, by sending notice to Plaintiffs, by the means set forth in paragraph 100 of this Agreement, if any of the following occur (collectively, the “Termination Events”):

- a. the Court declines to enter the Scheduling Order;
- b. the Court declines to enter the Bar Order and Judgment;

c. the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in Antigua and Barbuda declines to enter the Antiguan Orders;

d. within six months after the motion requesting entry of the Bar Order and Judgment is filed, the Court has not ruled on whether or not to enter the Bar Order and Judgment, or within six months after the motions requesting entry of the Antiguan Orders are filed, the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in Antigua and Barbuda has not ruled on whether or not to enter the Antiguan Orders;

e. the Scheduling Order, the Bar Order and Judgment, or any of the Antiguan Orders is withdrawn, rescinded, reversed, modified, or abrogated, on appeal or otherwise, or does not become Final;

f. any Authority, or any Forum, of any type, in the United States or elsewhere, indicates that it will, or will attempt to, not recognize, not give effect to, frustrate, or undermine, any part of, or any matter concerning, the Agreement, the Settlement, the Scheduling Order, the Bar Order and Judgment, or any of the Antiguan Orders;

g. the plaintiffs in the Wampold Action or the Marquette Action do not comply with the terms of the side letter referred to in paragraph 73 of the Agreement or, after such compliance, the court declines in the Wampold Action or in the Marquette Action to dismiss Kroll with prejudice; or

h. any Settled Claim is filed or otherwise commenced against Kroll in any jurisdiction outside of the United States.

81. Other than the Termination Events, no other event triggers Kroll's termination rights.

82. If Kroll terminates the Agreement pursuant to paragraph 80 of this Agreement:

a. the Bar Order and Judgment, the Scheduling Order, the Antiguan Orders, this Agreement and the Settlement shall be null and void and of no effect, except paragraphs 82, 89, 90, 92, 97, 99, 101-104, 106, and 110-11 of this Agreement, and any definitions in Section I of this Agreement necessary to interpret those paragraphs;

b. Kroll shall be responsible to pay the Receiver:

(i) if the amount of Plaintiffs' Share of Notice Costs that Plaintiffs actually incurred did not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00), the amount necessary to make the Receiver whole for 50% of such costs, or

(ii) if the amount of Plaintiffs' Share of Notice Costs that Plaintiffs actually incurred exceeded two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00), the amount necessary to make the Receiver whole for 50% of the first two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00) of such costs and 100% of the portion of such costs that exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00);

c. the Motion, Bar Order and Judgment, the Scheduling Order, the Antiguan Orders, this Agreement, the Settlement, and such termination shall not be admissible in any action and shall not be deemed to prejudice any objections, arguments, or defenses that Kroll may have concerning the Settled Claims; and

d. the Motion, Bar Order and Judgment, the Scheduling Order, the Antiguan Orders, this Agreement, the Settlement, and such termination shall not be admissible in any action and shall not be deemed to prejudice any claims that Plaintiffs may have concerning the Settled Claims.

83. Other than to effectuate this Agreement and the Settlement, all matters between the Parties hereby are and shall be stayed to the extent they are not already stayed.

XV. Representations and Warranties

84. 85. No Past Claims, Assignment, Encumbrance, or Transfer: Plaintiffs represent and warrant that they have not, in whole or in part, assigned, encumbered, sold, pledged as security, or in any manner transferred the Settled Claims against Kroll or the Kroll Released Parties except that the Receiver has sold or transferred the following entities: (i) on or about December 20, 2011, the Receiver sold 100% of the shares of the Ecuadorian entities Stanford Trust Company Administradora de Fondos y Fideicomisos, S.A. and Stanford Group Casa de Valores, S.A. to a group of Ecuadorean businessmen represented by Dr. Alvaro Paez; (ii) on March 31, 2010, the Receiver sold 100% of the shares of the Panamanian entities Stanford Bank (Panama) S.A. and Stanford Casa de Valores, S.A. to Strategic Investors Group Inc. represented by George F. 90. There are no stipulated facts between the Parties concerning the Settled Claims. This Agreement, whether or not consummated, the Settlement, the Scheduling Order, the Bar Order and Judgment, their terms and provisions, the negotiations, proceedings, and agreements connected to them, and all papers in support of them, and the documents and statements referred to in them:

a. are not, and shall not be described, deemed, invoked, offered, received, construed, or interpreted, as a presumption, an admission, a concession, or evidence, of any fact, claim, wrongdoing, fault, error, negligence, violation, liability, loss, injury, damages, or deficiency concerning any defense; and

b. shall not be discoverable or admissible, or used by any Party, in any action or proceeding for any reason, whether in the Court, in any other Forum, or otherwise, other than to enforce or effectuate this Agreement, the Settlement, the Scheduling Order, or the Bar Order and Judgment, or in connection with any claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

XVII. Non-Disparagement and Confidentiality

91. Each Party covenants that neither it, nor anyone else on its behalf or with its consent, shall make, publish, instigate, assist, or participate in any statement (in oral, written, electronic, or any other form, and whether or not legally constituting a cause of action) which (i) would disparage, denigrate, ridicule, libel, or slander the other Party, (ii) would expose the other Party to hatred, contempt, embarrassment, or ridicule, or (iii) is otherwise negative or derogatory concerning the other Party. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Receiver from reporting his activities to the Court, the Examiner, and the SEC, or from responding as necessary to inquiries from the Court and other Authority; or from carrying out any of his duties under the Second Amended Order Appointing Receiver (or other order addressing the scope of the Receiver's duties). Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Antiguan Liquidators from reporting their activities to the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in Antigua and Barbuda or from responding as necessary to inquiries from that court and other Authority; or from carrying out any of their duties under their appointing orders (or other order addressing the scope of their duties).

92. The Parties will keep confidential and shall not publish, communicate, or otherwise disclose, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, Confidential Information to any non-Party except (i) a Party may disclose Confidential Information pursuant to a legal obligation, court order, or lawfully issued subpoena, but only after providing prompt notice to the other Party so that, to the extent practicable, the other Party has time, before disclosure of any Confidential Information, to seek and obtain a protective order preventing or limiting disclosure; (ii) a Party may disclose Confidential Information based on specific consent from the other Party; (iii) Confidential Information may be used and disclosed as needed to enforce or effectuate the Agreement, the Settlement, the Scheduling Order, or the Bar Order and Judgment; and (iv) Kroll may disclose Confidential Information to the Kroll Released Parties, to the insurers, auditors, and accountants of Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties, and in its chapter 11 cases. Notwithstanding anything else, in this Agreement or otherwise, consent to disclosure may be transmitted by e-mail.

93. In addition to the provisions of paragraphs 91 and 92 of this Agreement, Plaintiffs will not, except in notices pursuant to the Court's approval or except as otherwise provided by this Agreement, the Scheduling Order, or the Bar Order and Judgment, discuss or refer to the Agreement, the Settlement, or Kroll (including any of its current or former employees or agents), in or with any press, newspapers, magazines, media, blogs, web-based services, or electronic social networks, or similar vehicles for information dissemination.

XVIII. Miscellaneous

94. Final and Complete Resolution: The Parties intend this Agreement and the Settlement to be and constitute a final, complete, and worldwide resolution of all matters between the Parties, the Kroll Released Parties, the Plaintiffs Release Parties, the Claimants, and the Interested Parties, and this Agreement, including its exhibits, shall be interpreted to effectuate this purpose. The Parties agree not to assert in any Forum that the other Party violated Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or litigated, negotiated, or otherwise engaged in conduct in bad faith or without a reasonable basis.

95. Prior Agreements: The Confidentiality Agreements effective May 14, 2012 and February 5, 2013 shall continue in effect, except as expressly modified by paragraph 92 of this Agreement. 96. Binding Agreement: This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, transferees, and assigns. However, no Party may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the express written consent of the opposing Party.

97. Disclaimer of Reliance: Each Party agrees and acknowledges that in negotiating and entering into this Agreement, the Party has not relied on, and has not been induced by, any representation, warranty, statement, estimate, communication, or information, of any nature whatsoever, whether written or oral, by or concerning any other Party, any agent of any other Party, or otherwise, including, but not limited to, any relating to Stanford, any certificate of deposit, CD, depository account, or investment with Stanford, Plaintiffs, Claimants, the Kroll Released Parties, the Kroll Released Parties' relationship with Stanford, the Kroll Released Parties' services to Stanford, the Settled Claims, the merit or lack of merit or existence or non-existence of any of the Settled Claims, any documents or information of or concerning the Kroll Released Parties, Stanford, or Plaintiffs, Claimants, or any tax consequences of this Agreement, except as set forth in this Agreement. The Parties have had an opportunity to consult with their attorneys and advisors, have considered the advantages and disadvantages of negotiating and entering into this Agreement, and have relied solely on their own judgment in negotiating and entering into this Agreement. The Parties waive any and all challenges to this paragraph.

98. Third-Party Beneficiaries: This Agreement is not intended to and does not create rights enforceable by any Person other than the Parties and the following third party beneficiaries, who may enforce the provisions of this Agreement and the Settlement that benefit them: the Kroll Released Parties, the Plaintiffs Release Parties, and the beneficiaries of paragraph 69 of this Agreement. There are no other third-party beneficiaries.

99. Negotiation, Drafting, and Construction: The Parties agree and acknowledge that they have reviewed and cooperated in the preparation of this Agreement, that no Party should or shall be deemed the drafter of this Agreement or any provision hereof, and that any rule, presumption, or burden of proof that would construe this Agreement, any ambiguity, or any other matter, against the drafter shall not apply and is waived. The Parties enter into this Agreement freely, after good faith, arm's-length bargaining, with the advice of counsel, and in the absence of coercion, duress, and undue influence. The titles and headings in this Agreement are not part of this Agreement and shall not bear on the meaning of this Agreement. The words "include," "includes," or "including" shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The words "and" and "or" shall be interpreted broadly to have the most inclusive meaning, regardless of any conjunctive or disjunctive tense. Words in the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender shall include any gender. The singular shall include the plural and vice versa. "Any" shall be understood to include and encompass "all," and "all" shall be understood to include and encompass "any."

Each Party can change its addressee information set forth above, provided that it sends a notice of such change to the other Party by the means set forth in this paragraph.

101. Bankruptcy Court Approval: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in this Agreement or otherwise, all of Kroll's obligations under this Agreement are subject to and contingent upon the approval of this Agreement by the Bankruptcy Court as set forth herein. Kroll shall expeditiously seek an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving this Agreement and authorizing Kroll to perform under this Agreement to the extent consistent with the Chapter 11 Plan (meaning that the Settlement Amount and costs of the settlement under this Agreement are paid by one or more third parties and not by Kroll or the general unsecured claims pool established under Kroll's Chapter 11 Plan) (the "Bankruptcy Court Approval Order"). If the Bankruptcy Court does not enter the Bankruptcy Court Approval Order within six months after the Agreement Date, this Agreement and the Settlement shall be null and void ab initio, shall not be deemed to prejudice any claims that Plaintiffs may have concerning the Settled Claims, and shall not be deemed to prejudice any objections, arguments, or defenses that Kroll may have concerning the Settled Claims.

102. Choice of Law: This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced under the laws of the State of Texas applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed in that jurisdiction, without regard to Texas or any other choice of law principles.

103. Mandatory, Exclusive Forum Selection Clause: Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or related to this Agreement, including the breach, interpretation, effect, or validity of this Agreement, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, and with respect to such an action, the Parties irrevocably consent to personal and subject matter jurisdiction and venue in such court, and waive any argument that such court is inconvenient, improper, or otherwise an inappropriate forum. For clarity, the Antigua Liquidators' consent to jurisdiction for any dispute, controversy, or claims arising out of or related to the Agreement, consistent with the Court's April 11, 2013 Order and 11 U.S.C. § 1510, shall not subject the Antigua Liquidators to the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States for any other purpose. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all matters related to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Order, to Kroll's chapter 11 cases, and to Kroll's Chapter 11 Plan.

104. United States Currency: All dollar amounts in this Agreement are expressed in United States dollars.

105. Timing: If any deadline imposed by this Agreement falls on a non-business day, then the deadline is extended until the next business day.

106. Waiver: The waiver by one Party of any breach of this Agreement by the other Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any other prior or subsequent breach of this Agreement.

107. Exhibits: The exhibits annexed to this Agreement are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth in this Agreement.

108. Receiver as Representative of the Stanford Receivership Estate: The Parties acknowledge that the Receiver is a receiver appointed to administer a receivership estate. All Parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is being made by the Receiver solely in his capacity as receiver, and not in a personal capacity, and no liability or obligation shall accrue to him personally, or to his law firm or any member thereof.

109. Antigua Liquidators as Representatives of the Stanford Entities Over Which Appointed: The Parties acknowledge that the Antigua Liquidators are appointed to administer the liquidation estates of Stanford International Bank, Ltd., Stanford Trust Company Ltd., and Stanford Development Company. All Parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is being made by the Antiguan Liquidators solely in their capacities as joint liquidators, and not in a personal capacity, and no liability or obligation shall accrue to them personally.

110. Integration and Modification: This Agreement and the side letter referred to herein set forth the entire understanding and agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter thereof and supersede all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations, and communications, whether oral or written, with respect to such subject matter. twenty-four million dollar ($24,000,000.00) payment by or on behalf of Kroll (the “Settlement Amount”);

WHEREAS, the Receiver plans to distribute the Settlement Amount, contingent on the Settlement becoming effective, minus certain attorneys’ fees, expenses, and costs, in a manner similar to that approved by this Court in its Orders approving the Receiver’s Interim Distribution Plans [see Docs. 1877 and 2037];

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why Did I Receive This Notice?

You received this notice (the “Long Form Notice”) by order of the Court because you have a right to know about the proposed Settlement.

The Court in charge of this matter is the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, the Hon. David C. Godbey currently presiding (the “Court”). The Plaintiffs are the Receiver, the Committee, and the Antiguan Liquidators. They share common goals in pursuing claims for, and obtaining funds for, those affected by losses related to Stanford. The Plaintiffs have entered into the Agreement that defines the Settlement with Kroll, LLC (f/k/a Kroll Inc.) and Kroll Associates, Inc. (together, “Kroll”). The Court-appointed Examiner, who recommends that the Settlement be approved and implemented, is an independent advisor to the Court and is also the Chair of the Committee.

2. What Is This Dispute About?

Kroll Associates, Inc. is a professional services firm that provided outside consulting services to certain Stanford entities and persons. Kroll, LLC (f/k/a Kroll Inc.) is a holding company that does not provide any services. Neither Kroll Associates, Inc. nor Kroll, LLC (f/k/a Kroll Inc.) sold, marketed, or brokered the sale of certificates of deposit (“CDs”) or other financial products for Stanford. On February 8, 2015, Kroll filed voluntary petitions for relief with the Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”) under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, commencing chapter 11 cases, which are being administered under the case caption In re Altegrity, Inc., et al., No. 15-10226 (Bankr. D. Del.) (Jointly Administered).

By virtue of their positions and investigations, the Receiver, Committee, and Antiguan Liquidators have acquired several terabytes of records concerning Stanford and have concluded that Stanford ran a fraudulent Ponzi scheme involving certificates of deposit sold by Stanford International Bank, Ltd. The Receiver, Committee, and Antiguan Liquidators have brought multiple lawsuits against third parties, including professionals such as law firms, accountants, insurance brokers, and banks that provided services to Stanford.

In 2011, the Receiver and Committee informed Kroll that they were investigating potential claims against Kroll, including aiding and abetting violations of the Texas Securities Act, aiding and abetting fraud, aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, and disgorgement of fees.

Kroll denies all of Plaintiffs’ claims or any wrongdoing whatsoever and would assert both legal and factual defenses in a vigorous defense to any such claims.

3. Why Is There A Settlement?

The Parties disagree as to the merits and value of the Plaintiffs' potential claims against Kroll and recognize the burden, expense, and risks of litigation. The Plaintiffs have not filed any complaint against Kroll. The Settlement avoids the uncertainty, costs, and risks associated with litigation – including the risk of no recovery by the Plaintiffs – and provides substantial benefits at this time. The Plaintiffs, in fulfillment of their duties, have concluded that the Settlement is in the best interests of those affected by wrongdoing or losses related to Stanford. The independent Examiner who was appointed by the Court in the SEC Action to assist the Court has reviewed the Settlement and recommends that it be approved and implemented.

The Settlement was reached following almost three years of investigation and negotiation and formal mediation before a retired judge who acted as an independent, neutral mediator.

SETTLEMENT DETAILS

4. What Does The Settlement Provide?

Kroll has agreed to cause to be paid to the Receiver a Settlement Amount of twenty-four million U.S. dollars (US$24,000,000.00) in cash. The Bankruptcy Court has approved the Settlement to the extent consistent with Kroll's chapter 11 plan, which means that the Settlement Amount will be paid by one or more third parties and not by Kroll or the general unsecured claims pool established under Kroll's chapter 11 plan. The Settlement Amount, minus any Court-approved attorneys fees and expenses and a portion of the costs incurred in the preparation, printing, distribution, and dissemination of the Notice, (the "Net Settlement Amount") will be distributed pursuant to a proposed distribution plan (the "Distribution Plan"). The Court must approve the Distribution Plan before any distributions are made.

5. What Claims Will Be Barred?

The Settlement is conditioned upon the Court's entry of a Bar Order and Judgment permanently enjoining all claims by Plaintiffs and all others against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties concerning Stanford. The proposed Bar Order and Judgment covers Plaintiffs and all other Persons worldwide. The proposed Bar Order and Judgment covers all Settled Claims (as defined at the end of this Long Form Notice) against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties. The proposed Bar Order and Judgment can be found at www.stanfordfinancialreceivership.com. The Bar Order and Judgment is intended to supplement, and not replace or diminish, (i) a March 20, 2015 order of the Bankruptcy Court requiring persons and entities to submit claims against Kroll on or before April 30, 2015 in order to participate in voting and distributions in Kroll's chapter 11 cases and (ii) the discharge of Kroll under its chapter 11 plan.

DISTRIBUTION PLAN

6. What Will The Distribution Plan Provide?

The Receiver will submit a Distribution Plan to the Court for approval. Under the Distribution Plan, the Net Settlement Amount will be apportioned on a pro rata basis based on allowed claim amounts, as recognized by the Receiver through his Court approved claims process, among Persons who have submitted claims to the Receiver or the Antiguan Liquidators based upon a certificate of deposit, CD, depository account, or investment with Stanford.

7. Is The Settlement Contingent On The Distribution Plan?

The Distribution Plan is a matter separate and apart from the Settlement between the Parties, and any decision or matter concerning the Distribution Plan shall not affect the validity or finality of the Agreement or the Settlement.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT

8. What Do I Need To Do To Get A Payment?

To receive a payment pursuant to the Settlement, a Claimant must have already either properly filed a proof of claim form with the Receiver in the SEC Action or a proof of debt form with the Antiguan Liquidators that was accepted in the Receiver's claims process.

9. When Would I Receive My Payment?

The Court will hold a Hearing on _____, 201__ to determine, among other things, whether to issue an order approving the Settlement. In addition, it is a condition of the Settlement that the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in Antigua and Barbuda enter orders approving the Settlement. There could be appeals from these orders. It is uncertain whether these appeals can be resolved favorably, and resolving them can take time, perhaps more than a year. Please be patient.

10. Will Payments Be In Full And Final Settlement Of Claims?

Yes. All payments pursuant to the Settlement shall be made by check bearing on the front "SETTLEMENT CHECK" and on the back "I accept this check in full and final settlement and release of all claims against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties related to Stanford and consent to the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas for all purposes related to such claims, expressly waiving any different jurisdiction based on my current or future domicile." Each Claimant shall be bound by the Bar Order and Judgment, including its provisions concerning the release and injunction of claims by Interested Parties, regardless of whether he/she/it receives, deposits, or endorses any check.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING THE PLAINTIFFS

11. Do I Have A Lawyer In These Actions?

The Receiver is represented in this matter by the law firm Davis & Santos, Attorneys & Counselors, P.C. The Committee is represented in this matter by the law firm Castillo & Snyder PC. The Antiguan Liquidators are represented in this matter by the law firm Astigarraga Davis. If you wish to be represented by a lawyer, you will need to hire one at your own expense.

12. How Will Plaintiffs' Counsel Be Paid?

Plaintiffs will move the Court to order that Plaintiffs' counsel be awarded from the Settlement Amount attorneys fees in a total amount of no more than US$6 million and reimbursement of expenses in a total amount of no more than US$25,000 (together, "Attorneys Fees").

OBJECTING

13. How Do I Tell the Court That I Do Not Like The Agreement, The Settlement, Or The Bar Order And Judgment?

Any Person, including any Claimant, any party in any action before this Court concerning Stanford, any Person interested in Stanford, and any other Person that directly or through his, her, or its counsel is served with or otherwise learns of the Settlement or the Court's Scheduling Order, who opposes the Agreement, the Settlement, or the Bar Order and Judgment, or wishes to appear at the Hearing, shall file and serve an objection no later than fifty-six (56) calendar days after the entry of the Court's Scheduling Order (the "Objection Deadline"). The procedures for objecting can be found in the Court's Scheduling Order, available at www.stanfordfinancialreceivership.com.

An objector shall be deemed to have submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court for all purposes related to the objection, the Agreement, the Settlement, and the Bar Order and Judgment. Potential objectors who do not present opposition shall be deemed to have waived the right to object (including any right to appeal) and to appear at the Hearing and shall be forever barred from raising such objections in the SEC Action or any other action or proceeding. Persons do not need to take any action to indicate their approval.

THE HEARING

14. When And Where Will The Court Decide Whether To Approve The Settlement And Enter The Bar Order And Judgment?

A Hearing is scheduled to be held before the Honorable David C. The Court reserves the right to approve the Agreement and the Settlement, and to enter the Bar Order and Judgment, at or after the Hearing, with such modifications as may be consented to by the Parties and without further notice other than that which may be posted by means of ECF in the SEC Action.

The date, time, and place for the Hearing, and the deadlines and date requirements in the Scheduling Order, shall be subject to adjournment or change by the Court without further notice other than that which may be posted by means of ECF in the SEC Action.

15. Do I Have To Come To The Hearing?

16. May I Speak At The Hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Hearing. To do so, you must file and serve a written objection, in compliance with paragraph 13 above, which states that you, or, if applicable, your attorney, requests the Court's permission to be heard orally at the Hearing.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

17. What Happens If I Do Nothing At All?

If the Court enters the Bar Order and Judgment and it becomes Final, any claims, including your Settled Claims, against Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties will be barred, and the Settlement Amount will be distributed pursuant to the Distribution Plan. (The definition of "Settled Claims" is reproduced at the end of this Long Form Notice.)

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

18. How Can I Obtain More Details About The Settlement?

This Long Form Notice summarizes the proposed Settlement. More details are contained in the Agreement and its exhibits and the Court's Scheduling Order concerning the Settlement. The Agreement and its exhibits, the Court's Scheduling Order, and other documents concerning the Settlement are available at www.stanfordfinancialreceivership.com.

DEFINITION OF "SETTLED CLAIMS"

For purposes of this Long Form Notice, "Settled Claims" means all actions, causes of action, suits, debts, dues, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, bonds, bills, specialties, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, promises, variances, trespasses, damages, judgments, extents, executions, liabilities, obligations, licenses, rights, claims, losses, offsets, warranties, costs, fees, penalties, expenses, rights of action, and demands whatsoever, whether or not currently asserted, known, suspected, existing, or discoverable, and whether based on federal, state, foreign law, or otherwise, and whether based on contract, tort, statute, law, equity or otherwise, that the releasor ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have, directly, representatively, derivatively, or in any other capacity, for, upon, or by reason of any matter, cause, or thing whatsoever, that, in full or in part, concerns, relates to, arises out of, or is in connection with, Stanford; any certificate of deposit, CD, depository account, or investment with Stanford; the Kroll Released Parties' relationship with Stanford; the Kroll Released Parties' provision of services to Stanford; any matter that was asserted in, could have been asserted in, or relates to the SEC Action, United States v. Stanford et al., No. 4:09-cr-00342 (S.D. Tex.), or any action concerning Stanford pending or commenced in any Forum; or any matter that makes a Person a Claimant. For the sake of clarity, “Settled Claims” includes all Settled Claims which the releasor does not know or suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of release, which, if known by them might have affected their decisions with respect to the Agreement and the Settlement (“Unknown Claims”). With respect to any and all Settled Claims, the releasor agrees that the releasor shall, and shall be deemed to have, expressly waived, released, and relinquished, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law or principle, in the United States or elsewhere, which governs or limits the release of unknown or unsuspected claims, including, without limitation, California Civil Code § 1542, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

Each releasor acknowledges that he, she, or it may hereafter discover facts different from, or in addition to, those which such releasor now knows or believes to be true with respect to the Settled Claims, but nonetheless agrees that the release of Settled Claims is and will remain binding and effective in all respects. “Unknown Claims” include contingent and non-contingent claims, whether or not concealed or hidden, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of different or additional facts. These provisions concerning unknown and unsuspected claims and the inclusion of “Unknown Claims” in the definition of Settled Claims were separately bargained for and were an essential element of the Agreement and the Settlement. For the avoidance of doubt, Settled Claims include any claims relating to the above matters that are filed in Kroll’s chapter 11 cases.

BAR ORDER AND JUDGMENT

This matter came for a hearing on _____, 201__, upon the Parties’ joint motion for final approval of settlement between, on the one hand, (i) Ralph S. Janvey, solely in his capacity as the receiver (the “Receiver”) for Robert Allen Stanford and other persons and entities pursuant to the orders of this Court entered February 17, 2009, March 12, 2009, and July 19, 2010 in this action; (ii) the Official Stanford Investors Committee, as defined in the order of this Court entered August 10, 2010 in this action (the “Committee”); and (iii) Marcus A. Wide and Hugh Dickson, in their capacities as the joint liquidators of Stanford International Bank, Ltd. and Stanford Trust Company Ltd., and Marcus A. Wide and Hordley Forbes, in their capacities as the joint liquidators of Stanford Development Company, pursuant to the orders of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court in Antigua and Barbuda entered May 12, 2011, March 30, 2012, and October 15, 2013, (the “Antiguan Liquidators”) (the Receiver, Committee, and Antiguan Liquidators are collectively referred to as “Plaintiffs”); and, on the other hand, (iv) Kroll, LLC (f/k/a Kroll Inc.) and Kroll Associates, Inc. (together, “Kroll”) (Plaintiffs on the one hand, and Kroll, on the other hand, are together referred to as the “Parties,” and each of those two Parties is referred to as a “Party”).

Due and adequate notice of the settlement agreement between the Parties dated as of December 15, 2015 (the “Agreement”), the settlement it defines (the “Settlement”), and this Bar Order and Judgment having been given, a hearing having been held, and the Court having considered all papers filed and proceedings had herein, and otherwise being informed of the premises, and good cause appearing therefor,

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Incorporation of the Agreement: This Bar Order and Judgment incorporates by reference the Agreement, including the definitions in the Agreement and the Exhibits to the Agreement. All definitions in this Bar Order and Judgment are consistent with the definitions set forth in the Agreement.

2. Jurisdiction: The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and all Parties. For clarity, the Antiguan Liquidators shall not be deemed, as a consequence of their consent to such jurisdiction, to have consented to the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States for any other purpose.

3. Kroll Bankruptcy: The Court notes that on February 8, 2015, Kroll filed voluntary petitions for relief with the Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”) under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532, commencing chapter 11 cases, which are being administered under the case caption In re Altegrity, Inc., et al., No. 15-10226 (Bankr. D. Del.) (Jointly Administered), and that the Bankruptcy Court has approved Kroll’s obligations under the Agreement to the extent consistent with Kroll’s chapter 11 plan (the “Bankruptcy Court Approval Order”), meaning that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, the Settlement Amount and costs of the Settlement under the Agreement are to be paid by one or more third parties and not by Kroll or the general unsecured claims pool established under Kroll's chapter 11 plan.

4. Good Faith: The Court finds and determines that the Parties conducted extensive, good faith, arm's-length negotiations, involving experienced and competent counsel, leading to the Agreement, and that the Agreement and Settlement were made in good faith.

5. Notice: The Court finds that the methodology, distribution, and dissemination of Notice: (i) were implemented in accordance with the Scheduling Order; (ii) constituted the best practicable notice; (iii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise all persons, entities, Authorities, and quasi-governmental persons or entities, worldwide, of any type, including, without limitation, any individuals, partnerships, corporations, estates, trusts, associations, proprietorships, organizations, or businesses, regardless of location, residence, or nationality (collectively, "Persons") of the Settlement and its effects, including the releases and injunctions provided under its terms, and all rights to object to the Agreement, the Settlement, or the Bar Order and Judgment, and to appear at the Hearing; (iv) were reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice; (v) met all applicable requirements of applicable law, including the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution (including Due Process), and the Rules of the Court; and (vi) provided to all Persons a full and fair opportunity to be heard on these matters.

6. Binding Effect of Agreement Upon the Parties: The Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, transferees, and assigns. However, no Party may assign any of its rights or obligations under the Agreement without the express written consent of the opposing Party.

7. Final Settlement Approval: The Court fully and finally approves the Settlement, and finds that the Settlement is, in all respects, fair, reasonable, and adequate, and in the best interests of all Persons interested in Stanford, including but not limited to any Person who has ever held a certificate of deposit, CD, depository account, or investment with Stanford (“Claimant”), the Receiver, the Antiguan Liquidators, Stanford, the Committee and its members, and any SIPC trustee or other trustee whose appointment encompasses any matter related to any Stanford Person (collectively, “Interested Parties”). The Court approves the documents submitted to the Court in connection with the implementation of the Settlement. The Court finds that the Parties and their counsel have at all times complied with the requirements of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Parties are directed to implement and consummate the Settlement in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Agreement, unless and until Kroll terminates the Agreement and the Settlement pursuant to Section XIV of the Agreement.

8. Parties’ Releases:

a. The releases set forth in paragraphs 61-64 of the Agreement (together, the “Release”), and the definitions in the Agreement of Settled Claims, Plaintiffs Release Parties, and Kroll Released Parties, are expressly incorporated in this Bar Order and Judgment in all respects. The Release is effective as of the Effective Date and all Settled Claims released by the Release are hereby compromised, settled, released, relinquished, discharged, and dismissed on the merits and with prejudice by virtue of the proceedings herein and this Bar Order and Judgment upon the Effective Date.

b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Bar Order and Judgment or otherwise, the foregoing releases do not release the Parties’ rights and obligations under the Agreement or the Settlement or bar the Parties from enforcing or effectuating the Agreement or the Settlement. Nor do the foregoing releases bar or release any claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

9. Permanent Injunction: The Court permanently bars and enjoins Plaintiffs, Claimants, any Interested Parties, and/or any Person, and all of their respective heirs, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, successors and assigns, from, directly or indirectly, or through a third party, instituting, reinstating, initiating, commencing, maintaining, continuing, filing, encouraging, soliciting, collaborating in, or otherwise prosecuting, against Kroll or any of the Kroll Released Parties, any action, lawsuit, cause of action, claim, investigation, demand, complaint, or proceeding, of any nature (including but not limited to litigation, arbitration, or any other legal proceeding, in any court, tribunal, or forum, whether its nature is federal, foreign, state, administrative, regulatory, arbitral, local, or otherwise (“Forum”)), whether individually, derivatively, on behalf of a class, or otherwise, concerning, arising from, in connection with, or related to the Settled Claims, whether in this Court, in any other Forum, or otherwise, except that there shall be no bar of any claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

10. Contribution Bar Order: The Court hereby permanently bars, enjoins, and restrains any Person from commencing, prosecuting, or asserting against Kroll or any Kroll Released Party, whether individually, derivatively, on behalf of a class, or otherwise, whether in this Court or in any other Forum or otherwise, any claim, however denominated, for contribution, indemnity, or any other claim where the injury to such Person is such Person’s liability to any Plaintiff, Claimant, or Interested Party that arises out of a judgment or settlement obtained by any Plaintiff, Claimant, or Interested Party (or anyone else to the extent that the claim on which it obtains a judgment or settlement was owned by any Plaintiff, Claimant or Interested Party) against such Person that in any way relates to, is based upon, arises from, or is connected with Stanford, this action, Milford Wampold et al. v. Pershing, LLC et al., No. C577629 (La. Dist. Ct. Baton Rouge Parish), Numa L. Marquette et al. v. Pershing, LLC et al., No. C581452 (La. Dist. Ct. Baton Rouge Parish), or any Settled Claim, except that there shall be no bar of any claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

11. Judgment Reduction:

a. To the extent any Person is barred, enjoined, or restrained by paragraph 10 of this Bar Order and Judgment, such Person (the “Non-Settlor”) shall be entitled to the reduction of any verdict, judgment, or award against it on a claim concerning Stanford, in any Forum, to the extent that such Forum finds that the Non-Settlor and the Kroll Released Parties were joint tortfeasors respecting such claim. Such reduction shall be the greater of: (a) an amount that corresponds to the percentage of responsibility of the Kroll Released Parties, or (b) such other amount as may be required by law. Nothing in this Bar Order and Judgment shall impair or affect or be construed to impair or affect in any way whatsoever, any right of any Person to: (a) claim a credit or offset in any litigation against such Person, however determined or quantified, if and to the extent provided for by the foregoing sentence, against any judgment amount, based upon the Settlement or payment of the Settlement Amount; (b) designate a “responsible third party” or “settling person” under Chapter 33 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code; or (c) take discovery under applicable rules in other litigation; provided for the avoidance of doubt that nothing in this sentence shall be interpreted to (1) permit or authorize any claim or Settled Claim seeking to recover any monetary or other relief from the Kroll Released Parties, (2) permit or authorize the commencement, assertion or continuation of any claim or Settled Claim against the Kroll Released Parties, including any claim or Settled Claim seeking to impose any liability of any kind (including but not limited to liability for contribution, indemnification or otherwise) upon the Kroll Released Parties, or (3) impair or affect or be construed to impair or affect in any way whatsoever, any right of the Kroll Released Parties to contest discovery.

b. In no event shall the Kroll Released Parties be responsible to pay any amount to any Person based on the amount or method or absence of reduction of any verdict, judgment, or award on a claim concerning Stanford.

12. Distribution and Administration:

a. The Receiver shall submit the Distribution Plan pursuant to the Agreement for approval by this Court. The Receiver shall be solely responsible for implementing the Distribution Plan.

b. A Claimant whose claim is determined to be invalid shall have no recourse of any type whatsoever against the Parties or the Kroll Released Parties, or their agents, but may solely object to such determination before the Court.

c. The Distribution Plan is a matter separate and apart from the Settlement between the Parties, and any decision or matter concerning the Distribution Plan shall not affect the validity or finality of the Agreement, the Settlement, or this Bar Order and Judgment. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may not cancel or terminate the Agreement or the Settlement, and the Agreement and the Settlement shall not be impugned or denied recognition or enforcement, based on anything relating to or concerning the Distribution Plan.

d. Each Claimant shall be bound by the Bar Order and Judgment, including its provisions concerning the release of and injunction against claims by Interested Parties, regardless of whether he/she/it receives, deposits, or endorses any check.

e. Kroll and the Kroll Released Parties shall not have any responsibility, obligation, or liability whatsoever with respect to the notice process (except as to payment of notice costs in the manner provided in the Settlement Agreement); the Distribution Plan; the administration of the Settlement; the investment, disbursement, allocation, or other administration or oversight of the Settlement Amount, the Net Settlement Amount, any other amount in connection with the Settlement, or any portion thereof; the payment or withholding of Taxes; the determination, administration, calculation, reviewing, or challenging of claims to the Net Settlement Amount or any other amount in connection with the Agreement; any attorneys fees, expenses, or other costs to be paid to counsel for Plaintiffs; or any losses, attorneys' fees, expenses, vendor payments, expert payments, or other costs in connection with any of the foregoing matters. No appeal, challenge, decision, or other matter concerning any subject set forth in this paragraph shall operate to terminate, cancel, or affect the finality of the Agreement or this Bar Order and Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph 12 is intended to nor does have any impact on Kroll's rights under Section XIV of the Agreement.

13. No Admission of Fault or Wrongdoing: There are no stipulated facts between the Parties concerning the Settled Claims. The Agreement, the Settlement, the Scheduling Order, and this Bar Order and Judgment, their terms and provisions, the negotiations, proceedings, and agreements connected to them, and all papers in support of them, and the documents and statements referred to in them:

a. are not, and shall not be described, deemed, invoked, offered, received, construed, or interpreted, as a presumption, an admission, a concession, or evidence, of any deficiency in the Settled Claims, or any wrongdoing, fault, error, negligence, violation, or liability on the part of Kroll or the Kroll Released Parties, or any deficiency concerning any defense of Kroll or the Kroll Released Parties; and

b. shall not be discoverable or admissible in any action or proceeding for any reason, whether in this Court, in any other Forum, or otherwise, other than to enforce or effectuate the Agreement, the Settlement, the Scheduling Order, or this Bar Order and Judgment, or in connection with any claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

14. Enforcement of Agreement: Nothing in this Bar Order and Judgment shall preclude any action to enforce the terms of the Agreement, the Settlement, or the Bar Order and Judgment, or any actions or claims, including but not limited to the Settled Claims, that Kroll may have against any Kroll Released Party, including but not limited to its insurers, reinsurers, employees and agents.

15. Modification of Agreement: If the Parties agree to any amendments or modifications of the Agreement that (i) are not materially inconsistent with this Bar Order and Judgment and (ii) do not materially limit the rights of Claimants under the Agreement, then the Parties are hereby authorized to agree to and adopt any such amendments or modifications without further order from the Court.

16. Stay: To the extent that they are not otherwise stayed, all matters between the Parties hereby are and shall be stayed, other than to effectuate the Agreement and the Settlement, until the Effective Date of the Agreement, or, if Kroll terminates the Agreement and the Settlement pursuant to Section XIV of the Agreement, until the expiration of thirty (30) business days after Kroll sends notice of termination to Plaintiffs.

17. Termination: If Kroll terminates the Agreement pursuant to Section XIV of the Agreement:

a. this Bar Order and Judgment, the Scheduling Order, the Agreement, and the Settlement shall be null and void and of no effect, except paragraphs 82, 89, 90, 92, 97, 99, 101-104, 106, and 110-11 of the Agreement, and any definitions in Section I of the Agreement necessary to interpret those paragraphs;

b. Kroll, subject to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Order, shall be responsible to pay the Receiver:

(i) if the amount of Plaintiffs' Share of Notice Costs that Plaintiffs actually incurred did not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00), the amount necessary to make the Receiver whole for 50% of such costs, or

(ii) if the amount of Plaintiffs' Share of Notice Costs that Plaintiffs actually incurred exceeded two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00), the amount necessary to make the Receiver whole for 50% of the first two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00) of such costs and 100% of the portion of such costs that exceeds two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00);

c. this Bar Order and Judgment, the Scheduling Order, the Antigua Orders, the Agreement, the Settlement, and such termination shall not be deemed to prejudice any objections, arguments, or defenses that Kroll may have concerning the Settled Claims; and

d. the Bar Order and Judgment, the Scheduling Order, the Antigua Orders, the Agreement, the Settlement, and such termination shall not be deemed to prejudice any claims that Plaintiffs may have concerning the Settled Claims.

18. Extensions of Time: Without further order of the Court, the Parties may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any provisions of the Agreement.

19. Retention of Jurisdiction: Without in any way affecting the finality of this Bar Order and Judgment, the Court expressly retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction for purposes of the administration, interpretation, consummation, and enforcement of the Agreement, the Settlement, the Scheduling Order, and this Bar Order and Judgment, including without limitation its injunctions and the Release, and to enter orders concerning implementation of the Settlement, the Distribution Plan, and any payment of attorneys' fees and expenses to Plaintiffs' counsel. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all matters related to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Order, Kroll's chapter 11 cases, and Kroll's chapter 11 plan.

20. Entry of Final Judgment: It is hereby adjudged, decreed, and ordered that Plaintiffs have a judgment against Kroll in the amount of twenty-four million dollars ($24,000,000.00). The Court expressly finds and determines that there is no just reason for any delay in the entry of this final judgment, which is both final and appealable, and immediate entry by the Clerk of the Court is expressly directed. Any appeal from this Bar Order and Judgment or any part of it must be taken within sixty (60) days after entry of this Bar Order and Judgment, and in compliance with the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. The judgment entered pursuant to this Bar Order and Judgment is subject to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
